

Please do nothing to allow further consolidation of ownership or control in the media. There is already far too much vital information that is screened out, and never reaches the public via mainstream media.

Allow time for adequate public notice and discussion.

Democracy requires an informed public - not one subjected to biased, slanted "information" produced by monopoly owners.